Sansone Group Relocates Bandana's Headquarters

St. Louis, MO - Sansone Group relocates Bandana's Headquarters to Chesterfield.

Bandana's relocated to a 7,000 square foot space in Chesterfield at 15450 South Outer Road, Suite 100. Sansone Group's Dan Merlo, CCIM helped Bandana's relocate to their new location after thoroughly reviewing all other options and real estate locations. Bandana's is a restaurant chain in the St. Louis area and is continuing to grow. "This location was more centrally located and gives us enough space to grow into for the next five years as we continue to expand," said Rick White, Chief Operating Officer of Bandana's⁽¹⁾. This lease is a five-year term with renewal options.

Founded in 1957, by Chairman and CEO Anthony F. Sansone, Sr., Sansone Group is a nationally recognized commercial real estate firm specializing in property and facility management, brokerage, development and redevelopment of retail, industrial, office, medical and residential properties. The company manages over 20 million square feet of property in ten states classifying it as one of the largest in its field. Please visit our website at www.sansonegroup.com.
