Anthony F. Sansone, Sr. Chosen for Midwest Commercial Real Estate Hall of Fame

St. Louis – Sansone Group is pleased to announce that Anthony F. Sansone, Sr. was selected as an inductee into the 1st annual "Midwest Commercial Real Estate Hall of Fame."

The Midwest Real Estate News has selected 55 Inductees from the 11 Midwest States in the following categories: Developer/ Owner, Brokerage, Property Management and Law. The "Midwest Commercial Real Estate Hall of Fame" honors and recognizes individuals from each Midwest state who have made the industry what it is today. Mr. Sansone was highlighted in the December 2010/January 2011 issue of Midwest Real Estate News.

Anthony F. Sansone, Sr. founded Sansone Group in 1957, where he currently serves as Principal, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer. He is joined by four of his sons as principals of the firm – James, Timothy, Douglas and Nicholas. All five principals work out of the St. Louis headquarters and all are involved in the daily activities of the firm. Mr. Sansone is well-known in the St. Louis business community for his success in real estate development and his devotion to civic and charitable causes.
